GEORGETOWN TO PLAY MT. ST. JOSEPH TODAY

Hilltoppers Look to Victory for Season's Start.

Georgetown will open its baseball schedule this afternoon when it plays Mount St. Joseph the postponed game from last Saturday. This will be the first real test the Hilltoppers have experienced this year, as the game on Thursday with Loyola amounted to nothing more than a practice for the Blue and Gray crowd. They never had to expend the same at any stage of the game. tend themselves at any stage of the game, as they were out in front from the very Mount St. Joseph is always represented Mount St. Joseph is always represented by a fast aggregation of athletes, and they will play good consistent ball all the way. They have a good hitting team and a fast infield, according to accounts coming from out that way.

Georgetown will use the same line-up as it did against Loyola which Coach John O'Reilly is well satisfied with and thinks will give a good account of itself in this game.

GALLAUDET IS READY FOR BROOKLANDERS

This Is First Clash of the Season Between These Colleges.

tween These Colleges.

The Gallaudet baseball team will open its season this afternoon when it clashes with the Catholic University nine on the Kendall Green campus. This will be the first meeting of these two teams this year. A return game will be played on April 14 between the same two teams and the place will be announced later. The game will be called at 2:30 p. m. This will be the first game for the Brooklanders as the game' scheduled with Rock Hill last Saturday had to be called off on account of rain and the game on Wednesday with Colby College was cancelled by the Northern boys.

lege was cancelled by the Northern boys.

Coach Charlie Moran has had the Brooklanders out on the field practicing hard for this game. The team has been indulging in batting practice and fielding, while the pitchers have been workins out and then pitching to the batters.

Gallaudet has been out for several days practicing both batting and fielding. On Wednesday it played Tech High School a nothing to nothing six-inning game. Ferguson, who was working on the mound for the Kendall Greeners, did not allow a hit nor was he scored uponduring the sources.

The collegians will have their strongest line-up in the field against the university boys from Brookland and hope to come out on the long end of the score. The Kendail Greeners will bat as follows: Wilson, third base; Houze, shortstop: Hetsler, second base; Marshall, first base; Bouchard, left field; Pillord, center field; Peard, right field; Schienker, lift catcher, and Ferguson, pitcher.
